Unmanifesting for Success By Lee Milteer

I. Law of Vacuum

Dear Wealth & Power Mastery Members,

Most of the time we focus on manifesting for Success. This month, we're going to focus on an unusual topic: UNmanifesting for Success. Unwanted, unneeded stuff is taking up a ton of space in your brain and it is preventing you from having major breakthroughs in solutions, ideas, ways to make more money, and have more time. Not only that, but all of this "stuff" is draining you of creative thoughts.

All of this unneeded material stuff has to be stored, cleaned, and insured! The bottom line is that unwanted or needed material stuff takes up life energy that you could be using to enjoy yourself or by being productive. Having too much stuff simply makes you tired and prevents you from other great experiences in life.

One of the first strategies for creating prosperity in life is to get rid of what you don't want in your life to make room for what you do want. It is said that nature abhors a vacuum. To have the opportunity to attract what you do want, such as a better relationship, more attractive clothes, or furniture, you must make room for your desires to manifest.

No matter what your economic status, there are many possessions that you're not using, which are just cluttering up your life, home, and office. Life has a way of creeping in all kinds of "things", and before you know it, you are burdened with a space that no longer feels or looks good. It's liberating to de-clutter files, closets, and get rid of piles or whatever is there that could use some cleaning up.

Keep in mind that when you give yourself permission to let go of "stuff" it paves the way for growth. You can unmanifest this chaos by being honest with yourself and taking back control of your world by letting stuff go that is not working, needs fixing, is outdated, or has no meaning to you. Release all this stuff that robs you of time and energy!

Another example is drawers full of junk. Every time you go to find something, you first have to wade through a lot of useless junk wasting your time. The same goes for files in your desk

-- it's hard to be organized and feel in control of your paperwork if your files are loaded with dated, useless information.

If you're living in fear of lack and tightly holding on to everything -- your material possessions, your time, your love, your energy or ideas, you're shutting yourself off from the flow of life. When you dam up a stream, the water becomes stagnant. When you close off your life, you become stagnant. The more unwanted things clutter your life, the less room there will be for the things you want to be able to appear.

A great universal secret of prosperity is passing along to others those things you no longer need. The more you give away of your material possessions you no longer need, the more love, appreciation, and praise, the world will surprise you with by increasing your abundance in all areas of your life.

When you move things, people, or situations that no longer serve you out of your life, you're clearing the way for what you do want. It's difficult to know what you do want until you get rid of what you don't want or what is no longer working. I SUGGEST you create a sign from the motto below!

Your new motto:

If it doesn't serve a purpose, have meaning or monetary value—out it must go!

Enthusiastically,
